

THE HOKKAIDO ENGLISH CHALLENGE NEWSLETTER

Welcome to the new year! The HEC Newsletter is here this month to make sure we all start off on the right foot.

January 2022

With February just around the corner, stores are filling up with cute, romantic gifts for that special someone. But what about all those other people you care about? Show your friends a little love too with...

HEC's Palentine Fundraiser!

Send a customizable Palentine to anyone in Japan for just 550 yen!

Each Palentine will include:

- a cute postcard + personalized message from you
- sweet little chocolates
- warm fuzzies and happy feels

You can also opt in for some add-ons*!

- printed photo of your favorite memory
- personalized cheesy poetry
- customized portrait drawing

*additional fees apply

Orders are open until February 4th!

TEST DATES

January is almost over, which means the registration deadline for the test is fast-approaching! Make sure your students have filled out the necessary forms correctly and have turned in the test fee so you can start (or continue) your practices worry-free. You can find a complete list of forms and information about the testing process on the HEC website:

<https://hec.hajet.org/information/>

As always, feel free to email us with any questions!
